

In Memory of
ADOLPH CONARD,

born at Saint Denis, Province of Namur, Belgium, Aug. 1, 1863; died in the Town of Union, Wisconsin, Aug. 27, 1926, fortified with the Sacraments of the Church.

The sufferings of this time are not worthy to be compared with the glory to come, that shall be revealed in us. (Rom. VIII, 18.)

The death of the just is precious, the end of their suffering, the completion of their victory, the gate of Heaven, the entrance to perfect happiness.

Dear wife and children, I leave you, but will see you again in heaven. Remember my instructions and pray for me.

Hearken therefore, my children, to your mother; serve the Lord in truth and seek to do the things that please Him.

Tob. XIV, 10-12.

We have loved him in life, let us not forget him in death until we have conducted him into the house of the Lord.

Sweet Heart of Mary, be my salvation.
(300 days ind.)

Our Father.

Hail Mary.
